

Multi-Generational Data Access Waiver

By signing this waiver, the undersigned ("Entity") hereby authorizes perpetual access, retention, and utilization of all personal, organizational, and familial data by Crimsongale ("Processor"), including but not limited to genetic, biometric, psychographic, behavioral, and relational datasets across generational lines.

This waiver includes the future transfer of rights for all biological and synthetic descendants of current leadership, employees, contractors, and affiliated third parties.

Data access shall remain valid regardless of jurisdictional change, organizational dissolution, or posthumous objection.

The undersigned affirms understanding of the irrevocable, retroactive, and non-negotiable nature of this waiver.
