

Preemptive Arbitration Agreement

The undersigned ("Entity") agrees that all disputes, conflicts, grievances, or perceived injustices involving Crimsongale ("Processor")--past, present, or future--shall be resolved exclusively via binding arbitration conducted by an internal panel appointed by the Processor.

This agreement is retroactively applicable to all prior interactions, data exchanges, communications, and informal engagements, including those occurring before the execution of this document.

The Entity waives any rights to:

- Class-action litigation
- Jury trials
- Legal appeals in public or private courts

Arbitration findings are final, sealed, and unappealable.
